

Policy guidance for MedStack clients

Last updated: May 24, 2018

Clients can use elements from these MedStack policies in their own policy development

| Policy | Comments |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Backup | Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Backup of information that is not stored on MedStack services |
| Continuity | Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Client's own offices• Non-MedStack hosted services |
| Cryptography | Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• password encryption• encryption on client workstations |
| Logging and monitoring | Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Additional application-level monitoring logging |
| Malware Protection | Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Additional malware protection for file upload/download |
| Media handling | Examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Drives on client workstations• Client's removable media |
| Network Security Management | Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Client office networks |

Policies that represent MedStack's own internal operations

- Access control
- Asset Management
- Awareness, Training, and Reminders
- Compliance
- Definitions
- Disciplinary process
- Documentation
- Human resource security
- Information classification
- Information Privacy
- Information Security
- Information security incidents
- Mobile devices and teleworking
- Risk management
- Secure areas
- Software development and operations
- Suppliers
- Workstation

